Description of Business

The Company was incorporated on January 1, 2022, under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) as "BPGM Metals Corp." The Company changed its name to "BPG Metals Corp." on January 5, 2022, and to "Bravo Mining Corp." on May 19, 2022.

On June 22, 2022, the name of the Company´s 100% owned subsidiary, BPGM Mineração Ltda., was changed to Bravo Mineração Ltda. ("Mineração").

The Company has one direct wholly owned subsidiary, Bravo Capital Partners Ltd. (formerly, BPGM Holding Ltd.), and two indirect wholly owned subsidiaries, Bravo Brazil Ltd. (formerly, BPGM Brasil Ltd), and Bravo Mineração Ltda. (formerly, BPGM Mineração Ltda).

On February 16, 2022, the Company issued 52,000,000 Common Shares as consideration for the acquisition of Mineração. The acquisition was accounted for as a reverse takeover ("RTO") whereby Mineração was identified as the acquirer for accounting purposes and the resulting entity is presented as a continuance of Mineração. The combined entity of Bravo and its wholly owned subsidiaries following the completion of the RTO are referred to as "the Company" in this MD&A.

The Company is a mineral exploration company focused on the exploration and development of the Luanga Project, a palladium, platinum, rhodium (collectively platinum group metals or "PGMs"), gold and nickel project (PGM+Au+Ni) located in the Carajás Mineral Province, Pará State, Brazil, that is comprised of a 7,810 hectares mining exploration licence. The Luanga Project is the Company's only material property. The Company holds its interest in the Luanga Project through its indirect wholly owned subsidiary, Mineração, which holds 100% right, title and interest in the Luanga Project, subject to royalty interests held by Vale S.A. ("Vale"), a major Brazilian mining company and the original owner of the Luanga Project, and Banco Nacional de Desenvolvimento Econômico e Social ("BNDES"), a Brazilian government business Development Bank. Mineração acquired its interest in the Luanga Project from Vale in consideration for: (a) cash payments in the aggregate amount of $1.3 million (the "Mineral Rights Payments") of which $800,000 has been paid to Vale as of the date of this MD&A) and the remaining $500,000 is due in November 2023, and (b) the grant of a 1.0% net smelter returns royalty on the Luanga Project to Vale and a 2.0% royalty on the net operating revenue generated by the production of platinum concentrate on the Luanga Project to BNDES. In the event that the production of any minerals other than platinum concentrate on the Luanga Project becomes economically viable, BNDES and Mineração have agreed to negotiate the terms of the royalties (if any) payable to BNDES on the revenue generated from such production.

The Company's head office is located at Av. Jornalista Ricardo Marinho, nº. 360, room 111, Barra da Tijuca, Rio de Janeiro, RJ, Brazil, Zip code 22631-350 and its registered office is located at Bentall 5, 550 Burrard Street, Suite 2501, Vancouver, British Columbia, V6C 2B5.

The Company has no source of revenue, and its ability to ensure continuing operations is dependent on the successful discovery of economically recoverable mineral resources and mineral reserves, confirmation of its interest in the underlying mineral claims, its ability to obtain necessary financing to complete the exploration and development activities, such activities are proven successful, and future profitable production. The Company is subject to risks and challenges like other mining companies in a comparable stage of operation, exploration, and development. These risks include, but are not limited to, losses, and negative operating cash flow for the foreseeable future, and the Company's dependence on raising cash through debt or equity markets and the successful development of its mineral property interests to satisfy its commitments and continue as a going concern. While the Company believes it has sufficient funds available from existing cash on hand to maintain its mineral investments and fund further exploration, evaluation and administration costs, the Company may require additional financing , if and when, a subsequent decision to complete the Phase 3 Work Program on the Luanga Project, as it is subject to the results of the Phase 2 Work Program, is made by the Company. The Phase 2 Work Prgram and Phase 3 Work Program are defined in the 2023 Technical Report.

Bravo's goal is to deliver superior returns to shareholders by concentrating on the acquisition, exploration and, if warranted, development and operation of mining properties. The Company currently plans to focus on the exploration and development of the Luanga Project, as set out below under "Mineral Property Interests".

Outlook and Economic Conditions

The Company is a mineral exploration company, focused on exploring its current property interests, and on acquisitions of other mineral exploration properties, should such acquisitions be consistent with its objectives and acquisition criteria. The Company currently has operations only in Brazil. The Company's financial success will be dependent upon the extent to which it can define and/or make discoveries of mineral deposits and on the economic viability of any such deposits. The development of such assets may take years to complete and the resulting income, if any, is difficult to determine with any certainty. To date, the Company has not produced any revenues. The sales value of any minerals defined and/or discovered by the Company is largely dependent upon factors beyond its control, such as the market value of the commodities produced.

There are significant uncertainties regarding the prices of base and precious metals and the availability of equity financing for the purposes of exploration and evaluation. The future performance of the Company is largely tied to the successful exploration, discovery and eventual development of its property interests, if they are proven successful, and other prospective business opportunities and the overall financial markets. Financial markets are likely to be volatile, reflecting ongoing concerns about the stability of the global economy.

Management regularly monitors economic conditions, estimates their impact on the Company's operations, and incorporates these estimates in both short-term operating and longer-term strategic decisions.

Mineral Property Interests

The Company commissioned a technical report for its Luanga platinum group element + gold + nickel project, titled "Independent Technical Report for the Luanga PGE+Au+Ni Project, Para State, Brazil" dated June 27, 2022, with an effective date of April 12, 2022 (the "2022 Technical Report'), that outlined a two-phase work program totaling $30.15 million. A new technical report titled "Independent Technical Report for the Luanga PGE+Au+Ni Project, Pará State, Brazil" dated April 4, 2023, with an effective date of March 28, 2023 (the "2023 Technical Report'), was prepared for the Company and superseded the 2022 Technical Report, which should no longer be relied upon.

The Company completed the Phase 1 Work Program in Q1, 2023 and commenced the Phase 2 Work Program as recommended by the 2022 Technical Report. The Company continues to work on the Phase 2 Work Program.

The 2023 Technical Report recommended additional work to complete a mineral resource estimate in accordance with National Instrument 43-101 Standards of Disclosure for Mineral Projects ("NI 43-101") as part of the Phase 1 Work Program, which was estimated to cost $150,000.

The completed portion of the Phase 1 Work Program consisted primarily of validation of previous data, infill drilling, mineral resource estimation, exploratory drilling, metallurgical studies and preparation of an updated technical report, cost approximately $10.2 million and was completed in Q1 2023 aside from the maiden mineral resource estimate for the Luanga Project, which is scheduled for completion in second half of 2023.

The recommended Phase 2 Work Program consists primarily of further infill drilling, updating of the mineral resource estimate, further exploration drilling, metallurgical studies, and preparation of an updated technical report, and is estimated to cost $11.85 million and be completed in Q1 2024. The Technical Report also added a Phase 3 Work Program comprised of further mineral resource expansion drilling at an estimated cost of $8.0 million.

Work to implement the recommendations of the Technical Reports commenced in Q1 2022 and, by June 30, 2023, work completed included one hundred and ninety-three diamond drill holes (for 36,880 meters drilled), including eight twin holes and eight metallurgical drill holes.

Reverse Take Over (RTO)

On February 9, 2022, the Company entered into the Share Exchange Agreement with the shareholders of Mineração. Under the terms of the Share Exchange Agreement, Mineração's shareholders exchanged their common shares for 52,000,000 Common Shares of the Company. The transaction was completed on February 16, 2022. This transaction was considered a related party transaction as it involved a shareholder of the Company. The percentage ownership the Company's shareholders had in the combined entity was approximately 16% after the issue of 52,000,000 Common Shares to the former Mineração shareholders. The following table represented the share capital of each company prior to the RTO:

	Number of Common Shares	Amount ($)
Bravo Mining Corp.
Balance prior to RTO	10,000,001	500,000
BPGM Mineração Ltda.
Balance prior to RTO	28,131,340	521,480

In accordance with IFRS 3 – Business Combinations, the substance of the transaction was a reverse takeover of a non-operating company. The transaction did not constitute a business combination as BPG Metals Corp. (as the Company then was) did not meet the definition of a business under IFRS 3. As a result, the transaction was accounted for as a capital transaction with Mineração being identified as the acquirer and the equity consideration being measured at fair value. The resulting consolidated statement of financial position was presented as a continuance of Mineração.

On February 16, 2022, the RTO was completed. The fair value of the consideration in the RTO was equivalent to the identifiable net assets acquired.

The following details the allocation of the purchase price consideration:

Consideration	($)
Common shares	452,864
Total consideration	452,864
Identifiable net assets acquired
Cash and cash equivalents	4,217,823

- During the three months ended June 30, 2023, interest and other income increased by $200,135 compared to the three months ended June 30, 2022, mainly due to the interest earned on cash balances received from the private placements and the initial public offering completed in the Q3 2022, and the public offer and private placements completed in the Q2 2023. Also, market interest rates in Q2 2023 were significantly higher than the interest rates in the same period of 2022.

- During the six months ended June 30, 2023, consulting fees increased by $135,788 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2022. This was due to start of the payment, in Q2 2022, of consulting fees for officers (CEO, CFO, Corporate Secretary), and other consulting fees. The Company had less activities during the Q1 2022, with no drilling, whereas in the current six-month period activities were supporting full operations.

- During the six months ended June 30, 2023, travel costs increased by $76,684 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2022, due to management travel in support of the financing completed in June 2023. The exploration work at Luanga Project started in Q2 2022 and the Company had no significant activities in Q1 2022, whereas the current six-month period had a higher level of management travel overseas to support corporate and investor relations activities.

- During the six months ended June 30, 2023, investor relations expenses increased by $237,421 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2022, due to the higher investor relations activities incurred in Q1 and Q2 2023 in support of the financing completed in June 2023. The Company did not have any such activities in Q1 2022 and only limited activities in Q2 2022.

- During the six months ended June 30, 2023, stock-based compensation increased by $505,970 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2022, due to the cost of the options calculated as per the Black-Scholes method, following the issuance of stock options on July 21, 2022, December 28, 2022, and June 20, 2023.

- During the six months ended June 30, 2023, interest and other income increased by $409,486 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2022, mainly due to the interest earned on cash balances received in the initial public offering completed in the Q3 2022, and the public offer and private placements completed in the Q2 2023. Also, market interest rates in the first six months of 2023 were significantly higher than the interest rates in the same period of 2022.

- During the six months ended June 30, 2023, income tax expense decreased by $28,198 compared to the six months ended June 30, 2022, mainly due to income tax credits on realized foreign exchange loss in Canadian dollars

The activities of the Company, principally the acquisition, exploration, and evaluation of mineral properties, are financed through equity from shareholders. The Company will continue to seek capital through various means, including the issuance of equity and/or debt, where and when appropriate.

The Company has no operating revenues and therefore must utilize its current cash reserves and other financing transactions to maintain its capacity to meet ongoing discretionary and committed exploration and operating activities.

The underspend following completion of Phase 1 Work Program was reallocated to the Phase 3 Work Program.*

There may be circumstances where, for valid business reasons, an additional reallocation of funds may be necessary in order for the Company to achieve its stated business objectives. The Company cannot guarantee it will have a cash flow positive status from operating activities in future periods. As a result, the Company continues to rely on the issuance of securities or other sources of financing to generate sufficient funds to fund its working capital requirements and for corporate expenditures. The Company could have negative cash flow from operating activities until sufficient levels of production and sales are achieved. To the extent that the Company has negative cash flow from operating activities in future periods, the Company may need to use a portion of proceeds from any offering to fund such negative cash flow. See "Risks and Uncertainties" section below.

Trends

Management regularly monitors economic conditions and estimates their impact on the Company's operations and incorporates these estimates in both short-term operating and longer-term strategic decisions. The objective of the strategy is to support the delivery of the Company's financial targets while protecting its future financial security and flexibility. Financial risks are primarily managed and monitored through operating and financing activities. The Company does not use derivative financial instruments. The financial risks are evaluated regularly with consideration to changes in key economic indicators and to up-to-date market information. The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below:
